SEATTLE – Tickets for Eddie Vedder's West Coast April tour dates sold out within 15 minutes last Friday, and additional shows were immediately added in Vancouver, Berkeley and San Diego, which also sold out immediately. Tickets for Eddie Vedder's Santa Barbara concert go on sale this Friday, February 29th at 10am PST.

For all sold out shows, there are now five (5) pair of second row seats available via auction on ticketmaster.com through noon PST Friday, March 7th. Ticket packages include an autographed, limited-edition tour poster.

A special auction package for the Santa Barbara concert will go up with the Santa Barbara public on sale this Friday. The package includes two pair of front row seats, two premier hotel rooms and a special after show chat with Eddie Vedder and others the night of the concert. Bidding for the Santa Barbara package begins this Friday at 10am PST and ends noon PST on Friday, March 14th.

Proceeds from all auction packages will support legal defense efforts for the West Memphis Three via the Damien Echols Legal Defense Fund. Damien Echols, Jason Baldwin and Jesse Miskelley (the WM3) have been in prison for 12 years for a crime they didn't commit. After years of waiting for the chance to demonstrate their innocence, the West Memphis Three will finally have hearings this Spring to introduce new DNA evidence proving they could not have committed the crimes for which they were convicted. More info at: www.wm3.org.

New Zealand singer-songwriter Liam Finn will open these shows.
