PEARL JAM's IMMAGINE IN CORNICE
(PICTURE IN A FRAME) DEBUTS AT #1 ON BILLBOARD'S MUSIC DVD CHART

FILM DIRECTED BY DANNY CLINCH INCLUDES LIVE PERFORMANCES
AND RARE, BEHIND-THE-SCENES FOOTAGE FROM THE BAND'S 2006 ITALIAN CONCERT DATES

SEATTLE - Pearl Jam's newly released DVD, Imagine in Cornice "Picture in a Frame" (Monkeywrench Records, distributed by Rhino Entertainment), makes an impressive debut at #1 on the Billboard Top Music DVD Chart. Released on September 25, 2007 the live concert film chronicles the band's 2006 European tour featuring performances at Pala Malaguti in Bologna, the Arena di Verona, the Forum in Milan, Palaisozaki in Torino and Duomo Square in Pistoia, Italy, and offers rare, behind-the-scenes footage, including personal interviews, candid performances, and glimpses backstage and off stage of the band's life on the road.

Directed by renowned photographer, filmmaker and long-time friend of the band Danny Clinch (Bruce Springsteen Devils and Dust, Live from Bonnaroo 2004), Imagine in Cornice was shot in High Definition, Super-8 and a number of formats in between.

Imagine in Cornice captures prime stage versions of songs spanning Pearl Jam's career -- ranging from "Even Flow" to "Corduroy" to "World Wide Suicide," and gives fans a behind-the-scenes perspective of the band's travels through Italy -- from their first stop in Bologna to their final show in Pistoia.

Imagine in Cornice is Pearl Jam's first concert film and DVD release since 2003's Live at the Garden.
